THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE RAMESH RANGANATHAN

WRIT PETITION No.34373 of 1997

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed questioning the action of the respondents in not considering the case of the petitioner for appointment on compassionate grounds.

Both Sri V.Vishwanatham, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri V.T.M.Prasad, learned standing counsel for the respondent-Corporation, would agree that the Corporation has discontinued with the scheme of compassionate appointment and that, instead, additional monetary benefit was being awarded to the legal representatives of the deceased employee. While Sri V.Vishwanatham, learned counsel for the petitioner, would submit that the respondent should at least be directed to extend this additional monetary benefit, Sri V.T.M.Prasad, learned standing counsel for the respondent-Corporation, would express ignorance of the subsequent events and as to whether any such amount was paid.

Ends of justice would be met if the petitioner is directed to submit a detailed representation to the second respondent seeking extension of the additional monetary benefit and the second respondent is directed to consider the same, in accordance with law. In case, the petitioner submits the representation within four weeks from today, the second respondent shall consider the same and pass appropriate orders within three months from the date of such representation.

The Writ Petition is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
